In my investigation little is known about the origins of these creatures, though under observational monitoring, the formation of the band they call "Deep Throat Trauma" is believed to be detrimental to the foundations of our very existence. Here are the findings of my research so far....

I believe that the being named Lodurr, is the ringleader of these deeply sickening throat gag inducing traumatic monsters. We believe he arrived somewhere around 2700 BC as part of an intergalactic scouting mission which may explain the mysterious construction of the pyramids. From interviews we have obtained it seemed that on his mission he may have stumbled across a public house and passed out, thus missing his ride back to his home planet leaving him stranded on Earth. Having no way of getting back home and needing human flesh to feed upon to survive, he disguised himself initially as a God worshipped by the Egyptians until he was found out as a fraud. Echoes have been heard throughout history that Lodurr has assimilated several identities. Some of these have been noted to be Ghengis Khan, Dracula and Jack the Ripper. In late September 1888 in Whitechapel, London he was captured, imprisoned and forgotten.

In the month of September 2016, an alarm was raised at one of our facilities.

our CCTV captured three known alien subjects that our planet has been hunting for some time..

Through intergalactic communications, we have learnt that these creatures are fugitives and extremely dangerous!!.

First known fugitive is Princess Ree, don't let this name fool you as her nickname is Hyper Death. Former leader of a crime-fighting magical girl group, Ree was unanimously dismissed for her foul language, drunken disorderly behaviour, outbursts of violence and her penchant for tomfoolery.
Do NOT approach!

Second known fugitive is Professor Daniel Gleeball the 3rd. A genius manipulator, with a psychotic love for collecting testicles. His favourite past times have included necromancy, creating freaks and abominations of creation.
NOT to be underestimated as his cunning alone makes him a dangerous adversary.

Lastly, the third known fugitive is only known as Chronic Blasturbator. All that is known about this creature is he is silent but deadly.

I fear, now that Lordurr has been freed and unified with these dangerous beings, having looked at our current cultural situation, They have seen how fame has made people god-like and in a master plan to truly take over the world they have formed a so called heavy metal band. Armed with instruments instead of their usual choice weapons, they have created DEEP THROAT TRAUMA.

Lordurr is luring us humans in with his twisted musings as front man.

'Hyper Death' Princess Ree has taken to the Shredding howls of rhythmic guitar

Professor Daniel Gleeball has taken up the low dark tones of the bass guitar

Chronic Blasturbator what only a primitive and powerful being can do ... the Drums!!!!

The freak show they perform has built an army of fans they call Gurglers, humans they have mind controlled. Relatively small at last count but converts to Gurglism are gradually growing, getting bigger and more monstrous! Beware, they plan to take over all our fragile organic brains into becoming slaves and feast upon those who are against them.

These dark days will be upon all of us.

I am urging the people of Earth to take this tremendously serious!

Ignore and we will all be doomed.
